For Immediate Release

South Carolina Cancer Alliance awards funding to local non-profit. First Impression of SC and Be on Top of Your Health Prevention Program (BOTH) were recently awarded $5,000 from South Carolina Cancer Alliance-Health Equity Project to assist in improving equity among medically underserved populations in Greenville County.

Be on Top of Your Health Prevention Program is a community wide initiative creating environments that promote good health for all-reducing disparities among the African American, Hispanic, homeless, and low-income minority populations in Greenville County. “Early screening and detection can save lives. The life you save maybe your own,” says Sandra Bullock, Executive Director-First Impression of SC. Our program offers COVID-19 vaccine education, physical activity, nutrition programming, overall health screening, educational outreach and provides low-income minorities access to free or low-cost early detection, cancer screening and diagnostic services of breast, cervical and colon cancers.

To learn more or register for the BOTH Program please call Sandra Bullock, First Impression of SC at 864-520-1500 or visit firstimpressionssc.org.
